JOURNAL

OTFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 28 February 1962

STAT	After having made arrangements to meet with the Senate Armed Services Committee on i March, at the request of the Director I telephoned Senator Russell advising that the Director had had only 24 hours to study the Beard report and felt that he must have more time to consider this. Consequently, we had to request that the meeting be put over. Arrangements were made to meet with the GIA Subcommittee of Senate Armed Services on Monday, 5 March, at 10:36 a.m. and to meet with the full Senate Armed Services Committee on Tuesday, 6 March, at 10:36 a.m. Senator Russell seemed a little disturbed at first particularly since he had encested other arrangements to make room for us on 1 March. However, he seen changed and appeared to appreciate the Director's problem.
STAT	with Nob Smart in Mr. Vinnen's absence and the I March meeting was put over until 7:00 a.m. on Monday, S March. However, there is another hearing scheduled at 10:00 a.m. so that the Agency will have only about one hour with the Subcommittee.
STAT	3. Boyd Crawford of House Fereign Affairs and Carl Marcy of Senate Foreign Relations were then contacted and the meetings scheduled for the End of March were then put over until 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, 6 March for Senate Foreign Relations and 2:30 p.m. on the same day for House Foreign Affairs.
STAT	telephoned asking if I could acciet Mr. Goodwin, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Latin American Affaire. Apparently Mr. Goodwin is concerned whether certain members of Congress and Seanters have been briefed on Agency operations in certain areas. Therefore, Mr. Goodwin had wished to discuss this matter with respect to specific members. A meeting was arranged for 12:30 on Friday, 2 March.
